Stand Up And Take Notice

A Place With Class

For the past few years, we had been hearing how the great pride and spirit of W.H.S. was dwindling and how the students were not backing the school like they did before.

But it was time for the people who were saying these things to "Stand Up and Take Notice" that we, the students at W.H.S., were alive and were taking pride in the school and made it a place that stood above the rest.

The students joined together, regardless of backgrounds, to restore the spirit that many believed was gone. Because of our determination and our respect for W.H.S., the students were indeed making W.H.S. a "Place With Class".

Summer Means — "Freedom"

The last exam had been taken, the final opening and shutting of lockers was done, and that last walk down the hall, glancing around, recalling the memories of the year that had just gone by was over. You walked to the door and opened it, and took one step out. School was over, and the lazy days of summer had begun

Summer was a time for "Freedom". Waking up became easier because ten or eleven o'clock seemed more reasonable than six or six-thirty. It was time to hit the sandy beaches and catch some "rays". No more setting in classrooms all day and going by a certain schedule. Summer was a time to relax and just take things as they came.

Sitting back and watching "soaps" seemed to be what most of the kids liked to do. Another activity was being able to stay out late on weekdays because there was no school the next day. Everything seemed to be running smoothly, but before you knew it you were back to waking up at six o'clock and walking into that same school you were so happy to leave last June.

Like they say, "All good things must come to an end", but the memories of the past will remain with us

Back To Hitting The Books

When Labor Day passed every year, kids around the city of South Bend put their summer activities behind them and got ready for school, This past year was no exception. With the intergration plan in its' second year, things took shape

For the students, it was time to get back into the routine of doing homework and studying. The finishing touches were being made on shopping for school clothes and for school supplies. It seemed like all that was left to do was to take that long walk or drive back to school. At the beginning it seemed to be boring, but once students returned to old friends from the past and new friends from the present, everything began to fall into place, and school days seemed to fly by

The Place To Be South Bend?

Through the years many people have asked themselves, "What is there to do in South Bend"? Be cause of the new buildings around the River City, that question could now be answered

With the construction of the Century Center and the Marriotte Ho tel, one could see plays, musicals lectures, and exhibits. These spe cial programs gave the people of South Bend and our visitors an opportunity to just relax and take it easy

The University of Notre Dame contributed to our economy and the social lives of some making South Bend, "the place to be."

Stand Up For The Panthers

With the clear view of how things were run by W H S administrators, students appreciated getting an education and W H S. in general. They started to believe in their school and realized how important it was to have pride in your school

Students again began to "Stand Up for the Panthers" by cheering for their team and by showing them how much they were behind them

The Seniors and Juniors showed the underclassmen just what spirit meant and how much more effort could be shown once they knew that people were backing them

School spirit at W.H.S. was being expressed by almost everyone and not by just a handful of people

The Spirit Of W.H.S. Is The People

One of the most worthwhile things learned at W H S, was how to deal with all kinds of people. By working together, everyone strived to succeed under the same system.

Students realized that by work ing together things got done. If it was working on a school newspaper or trying to put a play together, the only way to get it done was by teamwork. Everyone had the same opportunity to get involved

The people at WHS. made up the Washington spirit. It was not the building itself, but more importantly the people inside of the build ing that decided what the future held for WHS

B-Team And Freshmen

The B-Team Baseball program coached by Larry Jackowiak, had an 11-9 record and a conference record of 9-9 The team had eleven sophomores, one freshman, and one junior who achieved an award at the end of the season With the winning record posted by the team and with the many young men contributing to the program, next year should have some bright new faces in the varsity uniforms

The Freshman Baseball team, coached by Bruce Urban, posted a 4-5 record for the season. The team suffered problems early in the Spring, but the team straightened out those problems and came back to have almost a winning season. The team showed a lot of chacter and should be proud of the job they did

"The Man Who Came To Dinner"

Last Spring, the Drama Club put on the hilarious Comedy hit "The Man Who Came to Diner". The three act play took hours to produce. In the long run, it was worth it for Ron (Banjo) VanTornhaut and Tressie (Nurse) Johnson, but for old timers, Billy Scherpereel and Bonnie Bejma, it was shear fun. The play concerned a famous director — writer — producer, Sheridan Whiteside, who slipped and cracked his hipbone on the Stanley's doorstep after having dinner with them. Sheridan and his secretary decided to live in the Stanley house and take it over. In the end, it all worked out The play was another smash hit directed by Mr. Good

As Friday night, May 21, roled around, many preparations had been made. This night was an unusual night for the W.H.S. Prom.

The theme of the prom was chosen. It was "We Got Tonight", and the colors were Royal Blue and Light Blue. The night began with a dinner at a choice restaurant and then to the prom. There, the couples enjoyed the music of S.S. XPRESS and had a great time socializing with their friends. About ten o'clock the court was announced, and the Queen and Princess were announced. The Princess was Michelle VanWynsberghe, and the Queen was Jenny Maenhout

The evening passed, and each couple seemed to go their own way, taking with them the memories of the 1982 Junior Senior Prom

Our Senior Battle Cry

Four years ago, as the class of '83 entered Washington for the first time, the senior year seemed very far away, Freshmen began the process of working their way through crowded halls, searching above doors for the right room number, and meeting their new classmates, many of whom became good friends

As the years went by, all of the high school activities that were so new and different for freshmen pep assemblies, football games, homecoming, class parties, plays, proms - were enjoyed by many students and provided some great times. Passing drivers' ed. and getting a driver's license, buying a class ring, and getting through those final exams, all led up to that all-important senior year

Suddenly, the fall of '82 was here, and the class found itself in the much-anticipated, prestigious role that once seemed so far away — seniors. The senior year brought on a rush of activities, like the paperwork of applying to college or for a job, and also added responsibilities as leaders of the student body The class of '83 lived up to the challenge, carrying on the great tradition of Panther Pride, and left Washing ton in June with some well-earned diplomas and a host of memories from high school, some of "the best years of your life."

San Luis, Sonora, Mexico, was the home of senior foreign exchange student Gerardo Celaya. While in America, he stayed at the home of Joe Van Overberghe's family

Although Gerardo naturally missed his family and friends in Mexico, he said that he liked America because that the people he has met have been very friendly to him. A talented guitar player and singer, he took part in the fall Variety Show put on by the Drama Club. Language was not a problem for Gerado, and he maintained good grades at Washington. The Junior "Class of 84" with the help or their sponsors Mr. Sexton and Miss Soots have raised money by selling fruit for the Junior-Senior Prom in '83 They've come a long way to reach that goal

By overcoming the obstacles society has given them, they have shown us that are the leaders of '84. They shall carry on the traditions of Washington High School and lead the classes of '85, '86, '87

The Sophomores with one year behind them, realized being "The Pride of The West Side" isn't as easy as they thought. With the everyday pressures of "trying to get to class on time" or getting the homework for the next day done, the Sophomores have it pretty well "under control." Along with the Juniors and Seniors, they must set good examples for upcoming freshinen. With all this in mind, the sophomores can look forward to their year '85

September 19, will be remembered throughout WHS, as the 1982 Football Homecoming. It was the highlight of a rather unprepared for spirit week which included Monday — dress-up day, Tuesday — Western day, Wednesday — 50's day, Thursday — T-shirt day, and Friday — traditional green-n-white day. Friday, we had a most exuberant pep assembly, topped off with the introduction of the court by Class Pres. Kathie Gorny and Lonnie Powell. The ten beautifully dressed girls and escorts patiently waited for the ceremonies to end so they could go to breakfast at Chauncey's.

That night, the Panther's plucked the Adam's Eagles with the score of 20 to 0. This year's Football Homecoming Queen was Dawn Brooks, and her escort was Jeffery "Fuddie" Lewis.

W.H.S. Language Club has always been one of our largest organizations, and this year was no exception, with the membership well over fifty. The club was made up of French, Latin, and Spanish classes, but for the first time in many years, there were no German classes. At the beginning of the year nominations were held for the four offices. Julie Sheridan was elected President, Lisa Odusch, Vice President, Billy Scherpereel, Secretary Treasurer, and Joanne Morey, Program Chairmen, The annual Language Club Picnic was held at Bendix, and the fifth annual Chicken BBQ was a tremendous success. ## The 1982/83 Memory Lane Yearbook Staff

Throughout the many years at WHS, the year book has been held as a book filled with memorbilia. This year's staff consisted of twenty-seven hard working, dedicated young people. Through the inspirtual guidance of our sponsor Mrs. Swintz and Editor-in chief Michelle VanWynsberghe, this years Memory Lane was one of the best Washington has ever seen Many staffers did their part in Mrs. Swintz's first hour publications class and the others on their own free time. By the end of the year many of the staff were tired from carrying M & M boxes around to defray the cost of the yearbook. Despite the pressure and frustration most Memory Lane staff members en joyed their work, especially when they saw the results

Tennis, as one of the most popular games in the world, is growing in popularity in South Bend high schools. That meant a lot of competition, and there was a lot of tough competition in the N.I.C. The Washington tennis team, coached by Ann Dodd, was a very young team. They represented Washington against many veteran teams and showed their pride and determination. Most of the team members will be back to strengthen next year's squad

The Washington swim team had a lot of bright spots in a losing season. There were many individual and school records broken by Linda Laney (200 Free, 200 IM, and 500 Free), Leah Shetler (50 Free and 100 Free), and by the 400 Free Relay team of Linda Laney, Stephanie Vanslager, Jennifer Peczkowski, and Leah Shetler.

The team was composed mostly of seniors and the Panthers have a rebuilding job ahead of them, but with swimmers like Leah Shetler returning, the season should prove interesting

Cross Country Captures South Central Invt.

In many respects, the 1982 Cross Country season was the finest in recent Washington History. The Panther harriers accomplished several feats which had eluded previous teams. Among these gratifying performances were the team championship at the South Central Invitational, fourth place finish in the Sectional, and a surprising lifth place finish in the Regional meet

The Panthers' success was especially sweet because the team lacked depth, was less experienced, and probably less talented than many teams it out performed. The secret of this group's success was simply hard work, dedication, and perserverance. Each runner continued to improve throughout the season They performed best when it counted most Outstanding senior leadership was provided by captains Brady Neilson and David Molnar. Brady established a school record by running 15 58 in the regional meet

Coaches Welling and Alspaugh were extremely proud of the 1982 Cross Country team, both on the course and off They represented Washington well Congratulations!

The 1982-83 Boys Swim Team

The 1982 83 boys swim team, under supervision of second year coach Tom Johnson, has shown great effort and spirit at their meets. But lack of participation has had a great effect on the outcome of the meets. Even though they were off to a disappointing start, they showed improvement as the season went on. They had some impressive performances by seniors Tom Laney, Mark Phillipi, and some good outings by Tony Lentch, and eager to improve. Mike Young and Jim Latson. Hard work, two practices a day, and time consuming hours have satisfied individual performances.

Spikers Show Enthusiasm To Win

The 1982 voile, ball team deserved much credit for their vehement elforts demonstrated on the court. Hard work and much enthusiasm stirred the production of a tough ball club. The Panthers learned the value of teamwork and spirit through the dedicated coaching of Miss Shirely.

The returning seniors captain Lon-Rothballer Shelly Szalewski, Chris Pecina, and Pat Vanslager led the varsity team to a 7.6 winning season. The season did not end spectacularly as the girls desired but the victory of gaining teamwork and spirit made the season valuable,

The varsity club entered the South Bend sectionals conquering a prepared Clay club. But in the semi-final match against a troublesome Adams team, the Panthers fought vigorously to a defeated end This match finished a difficult season but marked the beginning of fond memories of the experiences gained this year

The B-team Panthers also fought a tough season ending in a 6-7 record. Headed by captain Sue Lutomski the team cooperated and worked hard throughout the season. These girls profited this season by attaining experience for the upcomming year which should prove to be productive. Good Luck, Panthers!

Right Michele Bonek concentrates on making her free throws

The 1982 83 Girls Basketball Team, coached by Jo Masey, proved to be the starting blocks of what could be the start of a good Girls Basketball program. This year, the girls showed great improvement and showed teams around the city that they came to play basketball. Lead by Seniors; Tressy Johnson, Kim Kilgore, Faye Rodgers, Kim Miller, Bonnie Bejma, and Michelle VanWynsberghe, and Juniors: Gwen Bradford and Michele Bonek, the team fought to the end.

With great performances by Gwen Bradford and Tressy Johnson, good court leadership by Bonnie Bejma, and the outstanding play of the rest of the team, they might not of been winners in the win-loss bracket, but they were in the character in which they played.

The theme for the 1983 Memory Lane was "Stand Up and Take Notice." After many ideas and good possibilities this theme was chosen for a couple of important reasons First of all, the area parents, administrators, and alma mater of Washington High School felt that the student body at W.H.S. and the Pride of the Westside were not like before, but it was time for these people to "Stand Up and Take Notice" that the pride and spirit of W.H.S. was back Second of all, the theme was picked because of the student body. The students began to show to everyone around the city that W.H.S. was alive and well on the Westside Whether at pep assemblies or in the stands, spirit was being shown, and the pride of the school was once again back in the hearts of its occupants, it is time for everyone around to "Stand Up and Take Notice" of the Pride of W.H.S.

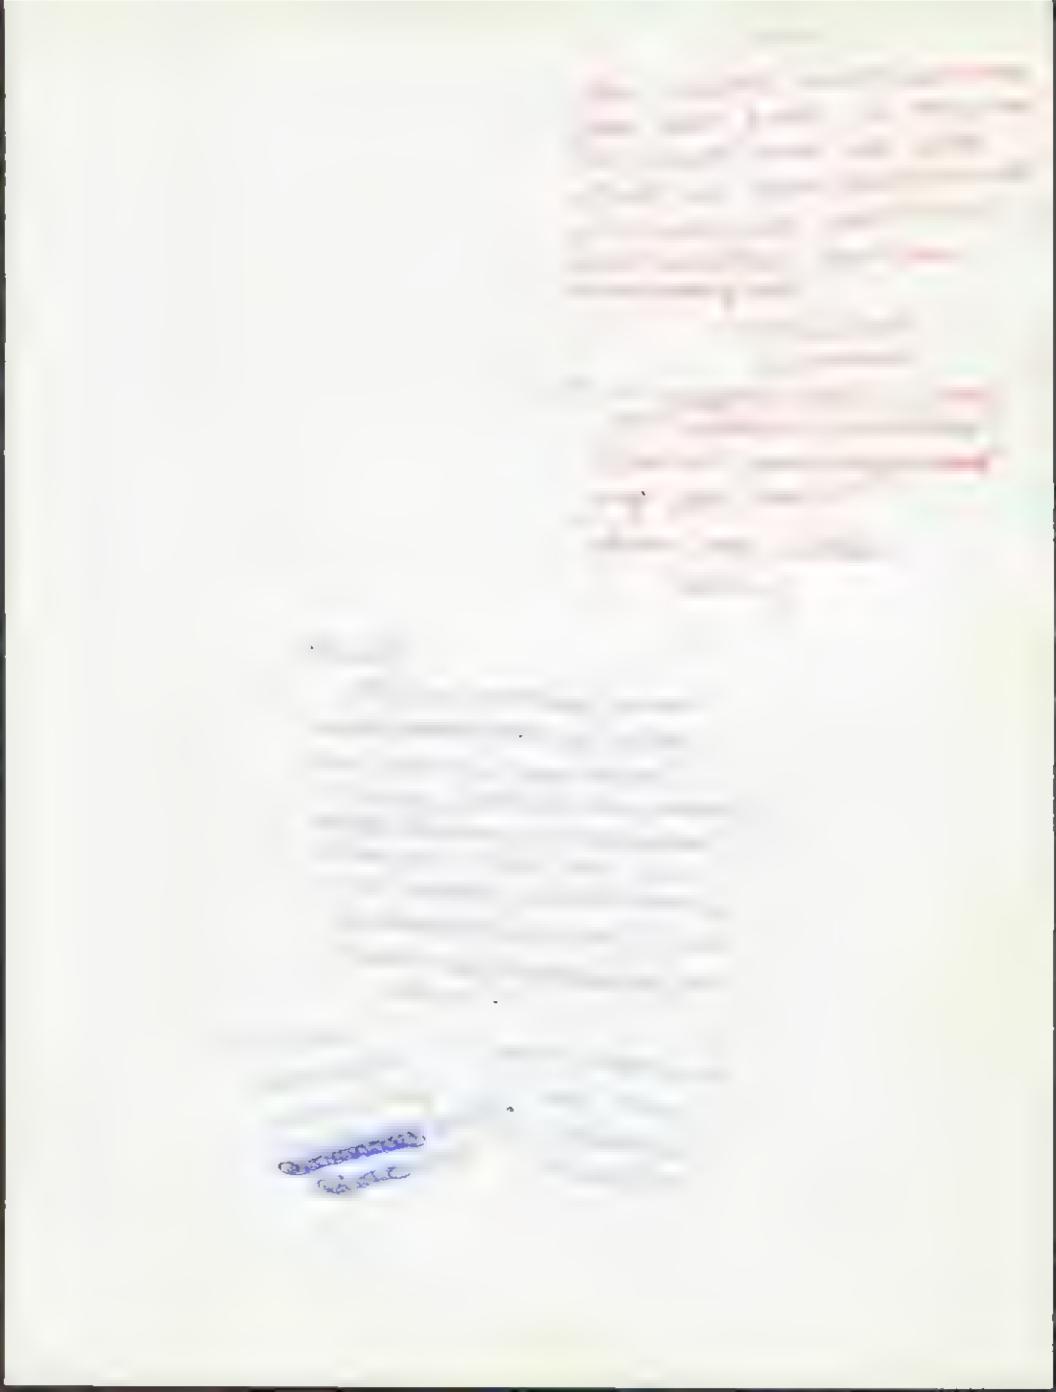

As Editor-in-Chief of the 1983 Memory Lane, I would like to thank the many members who gave their complete time and devotion into making this our best yearbook Whether it was working late into the night or budgeting their schedules to meet deadlines, everyone worked togeth er

In addition, a special thanks and a warm handshake goes to Mrs. Swintz, our adviser. Thanks for the many extra hours put into meeting deadlines and for being there when any problems arouse. Also a big thank you goes to Mr Jim Beckham, American Yearbook Representative, who put in his share of time, whether it was working late on Senior color layouts or making that special trip into school to check up on everything. Every member of the staff should feel proud of the 1983 yearbook and thanks again for making the 1983 Memory Lane possible

By looking through the book and by reading it, we hope you can pick out the great memories of your high school days and be able to treasure them for the rest of your life. If it might only be one great or special memory, we hope the 1983 Memory Lane will be there whenever you need to take that look back — five, ten, or twenty years from now
